There seems to be a great deal of disagreement re. Richard the son of John. He is referenced at being born between 1716 and 1727. There is also some confusion re. Whether or not he was the father of Isaiah or his son Richard was the father of Isaiah. Most references suggest: Richard – John – Richard – Isaiah.

2 -Richard Shockley (John 1, Richard 0) was born Bet. 1716 - 1723 in Worchestor Co. Md., and died Bet. 1793 - 1798 in Somerset Co. Md.. - John Pauter at R /W this Richard (B. 1728 Grayson Co., VA.)

The following is extracted from an article by John P Alderman of Hillsville, Virginia. By the time Richard Shockley came over the road, it was known as the Carolina Road, so named because it ran to North Carolina and because hundreds of people traveled on their way from south side Virginia and from the Carolinas into western Virginia and Tennessee. Much of it ran where US Highway 52 does today and Main Street in Hillsville follows the same old road. He came from Pittsylvania Count, Virginia, where he owned 430 acres of land that he was paying tax on in 1767. He came over the mountains about 1773 or 1774, and at that time in his life he was in his middle years. It is likely that he left most of his family in Pennsylvania County until about 1775, when he sold his Pennsylvania County land. On 17 April 1775, he sold to Jeremiah Ward 50 acres on the North side of the Pigg River, and on that same day bought from Jeremiah Ward 380 acres on Cedar Creek. He settled on and by the stream that is know as Little Reed Island. By 1782, he had more neighbors, Reuben Dalton had come here from Pittsylvania County, and had acquired 170 acres near Shockley. John Waters, John Williams and William Williams acquired tract of land on the present site of the town. An Indian uprising began in the Ohio Valley in the spring of 1774 and the new Governor of Virginia, Lord Dunmore, decided to mount an expedition against the Shawnees. A regiment of militia was organized out of Fincastle County, and other troops were called in from western Virginia and the Shenandoah Valley. Richard Shockley and his brother Thomas was a member of this group. There was also a small contingent that came from present day Tennessee. The group marched into present day West Virginia and on 10 October 1774, at Point Pleasant, at the confluence of the Ohio and Kanawha Rivers, a battle was fought, that resulted in a defeat for the Shawnee. This brought several years of relative peace to the area. By the early 1790's Richard was getting restless. In 1793 or 1794, he sold 93 acres of land to John Dodson. (The name Dodson/Dotson was used interchangeably) In 1794, he sold 46 acres to Gainer Pierce. He sold the remainder in 1795 to William Chalfant. Shortly after that he left for Grainger County, Tennessee.

Forum suggests that Uriah may actually have been the son of William Shockley and Mary Crawley instead of Isaiah as detailed here.

source: Goodspeed's history p 620 on Gasconade Co. "Almost every one of the early settlers, as was the most natural and indeed necessary thing for them to do, settled on the bottom lands, near a small stream or good spring. No attempt was made to settle on the prairie until 1838, when Uriah Shockley located on Douglas Prairie, but, owing to the absence of water, and the difficulty of breaking new prairie land, abandoned his claim to Samuel Burchard, who, in his turn, was succeeded by Fred Douglas, after whom the prairie was named..." Uriah must have been one of the first settlers of Gasconade. Goodspeed says there were 3 Shockleys on the list of voters file 6 June 1828; Uriah's father apparently didn't ever move to MO; so 3 of his sons are assumed to be here by this date - although some could be nephews, not sons! source: 1860 MO census Gasconnade Co Jakes Prairie PO Bourbois township, with some Bransons nearby Uriah is a farmer; reports RE $1700 and PE $400. Uriah and Mathilda are both illiterate. source: Gasconade Co cemetery survey. The couple are buried in Barbarick-Goers cemetery, (#1 in Gasc cem records, Sec 32 T42N R6W Uriah married Rebbeca Cox in White County, TN. Uriah and Rebbeca were the parents of one child, a dau. born in Missouri on Oct. 20,1829. she was named Rebecca after her mother. Uriahs wife died shortly after the birth of her dau. The baby was then sent to White County TN to be cared for, and raised by her maternal grandmother Mary Cox, widow of Wm Cox. who died in White County Tn in 1814. Uriah Shockley was married a second time on 6 May 1830. Her name was Matilda Barbarick, dau of Frederick and Elizabeth Walter. Matilda was born about 1810 in Cabarrus County NC. Uriah and Matilda were the parents of twelve children, with eight being born before 1850. Here is a list of their children (Elizabeth, David, Thomas, Barbara, Joshua, Sally, Alexander, Joseph, Isaiah, Frederick, Samuel, Hettie (the oldest), This is of my family line, Hettie married Reubin J. Ridenhour. there is more on her. The only Hiarm I see is the son of Hettie Shockley, and Reuben J.Ridenhour.

Etta Mae Williams

Hello Sir,

My name is Eugene Walter Koenig, Jr. My grandfather is Otto C. Koenig. He married Jesse's older sister Mary Ellen Williams.

I have been doing family research for 3 years and my family lines are expanding everyday.

I am interested in getting the names of Jesse's family members. Namely his wife and children. I noticed that Jesse's wife is nee Crider. It seemed that The Criders and Williams married each others siblings at least three times.

Geo. Crider married Etta Mae Williams - my great aunt Wilbur Williams married Gertrude Crider - my great Uncle and Jesse married a Crider as well.

I am excited to see my family tree blooming leaves and fruit. After my father died when I was a young lad, it seemed the extended family died with him. Unfortunately, I was too young to appreciate family history to inquire of him. We lost contact with what remained of the family after he died for my Dad was in the service, and we were shipped to different places.

Fortunately for me, My g-aunt Daisy Ora Maude Williams left behind for me four pages of information (although incomplete in detail) the names of siblings, her parents, and offspring of her siblings. Unfortunately the list of offspring are not correlated with the parents. Rather, by birth and / or death dates alone. So this was a great beginning.

My family surnames are expanding daily since my return from Missouri three weeks ago. Now it contains: Williams, Koenig, Crider, Kramer, Damschroeder, Hanneman, Keller, Roth, to name a few.

Also, Is there anyway to acquire the books on the history of Criders that you have in your possession. Do you know a source that might be willing to reproduce these books or even have copies that remain? If so, I am interested.

Thank you for your time.

Eugene W. Koenig, Jr.
(Grandson of Mary Ellen Williams)
